COORDINATORS NEEDED FOR MERCY MEALS

We are in "dire" need of parishioners, male or female, to volunteer to become Coordinators for the Mercy Meals that are provided for families of our deceased. Currently, we only have two ladies with a couple of helpers, and we have approximately 75 funerals per year in our parish. We need 15-20 Coordinators to accommodate the need for so many Mercy Meals. If we are able to get this many Coordinators, he/she would only have to coordinate/serve Mercy Meals approximately 4 times per year. We are so desperate at this point – if we don't recruit enough volunteers for this well deserved Ministry, we may have to cease offering families this service. If interested, please call the Parish Office (353-9404) or Marge Schmalz (897-6368).

Dear Parishioners,

The work of repairing the second floor deck, installing the new front entrance of the school, and the paving of the parking lots behind the church and school is about complete. Funds from Legacy for our Mission, the CYO athletic program, and parishioners who said they would make sizable contributions, besides the prayers you offered, helped to bring all of this to a successful completion. My gratitude to all.

Peace & God Bless You,
 Fr. J.J. Riedman

Please call Penny Eisenhut (862-1235), Patsy Seats (356-2367), Jane Jones (899-2822), Nancy Swain (356-1538), or Mary Jo Meuser (894-8923) by Monday evening, July 28, if you will attend.

Do you serve our Parish community..... by working at the St. Vincent de Paul Distribution Center or at the Food Pantry? Do you pray the rosary at wake services for our deceased parish members? Do you take communion to hospital patients, shut-ins, or nursing homes? Do you help with the bingo at Lockfield Village? Do you help with communion service or rosary at Covington East? So please call any of the above numbers as soon as possible. Meanwhile, we ask you to continue your service and prayer. God Bless you and may St. Vincent de Paul guide you in your Ministry.
